4. 2010 EQC Programs
Chair Eggerman introduced the topic and referenced the two staff reports submitted with the Agenda packet. Mr. Schultz gave an overview of the reports and commented on the process pertaining to the Committee’s 2010 programs. He highlighted that self-generated work on programs is only one of three major roles of the Committee (as established by resolution), the other two being: responding to requests from the Council, staff, and other City entities and hearing and possibly responding to comments from members of the public. Proposals by Committee members and sub-committees, comments from the public were taken into account in creating staff’s recommendations, and the Committee can amend, edit, and change them.

The Committee discussed the various program areas at length and added the “Environmental Film Series” to the list. Members of the public also shared their thoughts pertaining to environmental education, community youth involvement, climate action and litter reduction, and policy education. Moved and seconded to adopt the EQC’s initial program areas for 2010 (Spitalnik/Dandridge) – passed unanimously. Chair Eggerman asked for a show of hands from Committee members interested in working on these program areas:

- Community Climate Action

5. Earth Day 2010 Planning
Chair Eggerman asked Mr. Schultz to address this topic. He reported that the City’s annual Earth Day is coming up and that the Earth Day Planning Committee, comprised of Janet Abelson, City staff, and other community volunteers will be meeting to plan this year’s event. He asked that EQC members consider attending in order to help craft the event.

6. Committee and Liaison Announcements and Future Agenda Items
Councilmember Abelson reported on the City’s financial state and gave details about the budget and upcoming capital improvement projects.

Robin Mitchell commented that the City could have the community rally behind volunteer efforts as a way of helping the City through the recession.

7. Adjournment
Chair Eggerman adjourned the meeting at 9:15 p.m.
