Request: A Planning Commission study session of the Draft San Pablo Avenue Specific Plan. Staff shall present an overview of the Plan and its elements that are pertinent to the Planning Commission’s purview.

CEQA: A draft programmatic Environmental Impact Report has been prepared and is currently under review.

Community Development Service Manager, Margaret Kavanaugh-Lynch, and Senior Planner, Sean Moss, gave a presentation on the San Pablo Avenue Specific Plan.

The following members of the public addressed the Commission regarding the Draft San Pablo Avenue Specific Plan:

Tom Panas, 7345 Fairmount Ave
Lloyd Coyne, 7019 Schmidt Ln
Carol Langhauser, 946 Contra Costa Drive
Nick Arzio, 10026 San Pablo Ave
Mary Yaholkovsky, 537 Kearney St
Howdy Goudey, 635 Elm St
Garland Ellis, Richmond

The Commission asked questions of staff and discussed their comments on the Draft Specific Plan.

6. Study Session – Annual Work Plan
Project: Annual Work Plan
Request: Identify topic(s) for further study as part of the Planning Commission’s annual work plan.

Senior Planner, Sean Moss, presented the work plan and expressed the need for the Commission to consider topics of discussions for the Council to consider. The following topics were considered by the Commission:

Watershed approach – No net increase in creek coverage.
Cell towers – change in process so that the Commission does not consider them.
Parking – Discussion on parking.
Multi-generational housing.
Field trip of the accessory dwelling units.
Economic development study on businesses that would use ground floor spaces.
Training related to historic resources.
Fences along the front, deer fences, and wildlife corridors.

There was consensus among Commissioners that creeks, watersheds and wildlife corridors were a top priority and the Commission directed staff to look for opportunities for further training.

7. Staff Communications
Staff informed the Commission about the upcoming Housing Element workshop.

8. Adjournment
