We have been very self-sufficient for many years with members, merchants and donors to support our show, as well as limiting our expenses. We increased our cash prize awards to be competitive with other similar art organizations. This was successful. We also limited artwork not for sale to our own members to reduce the number of artists who used the show for their own publicity and prize money, only to sell privately without any commission to El Cerrito Art Association. This was also successful, as we at least received the membership fee. It has been only recently that we have faced diminished funds and increased costs beyond our resources. Our increase of annual membership dues by $5 was only after several years of no change. That may have cost us memberships, although the pandemic has also been a factor.

As we have become aware of increased potential support, we also are working to become more visible to the community. Our booth at the 4th of July One/world Festival received many interested visitors who signed up for email notices, took our show entry flyers and ECAA logo/website buttons, which we initiated in 2019. In addition, we have attended Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club gatherings as they have resumed, to cultivate continued and new local merchant support.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Include project description here:

Our 45th annual art show has been continuous except for the 2020 Covid hiatus. It is free and open to the public for local visual artists to display their original work in 12 different media categories. We are a city co-sponsored organization dedicated to supporting local artists as they become more practiced in their techniques and more competitive in their presentation to the public and collectors.

This three-day event occupies a year of planning and countless hours by a small cadre of volunteers.
It is the largest and most inclusive visual art event in El Cerrito, filling the Main Hall and Skylight Room with an exhibit of artwork by local artists. It is free and open to the public over one weekend in October.

The Arts & Culture Commission cares about diverse

This is a non-juried show, open to all local visual artists over 18. We accept all entries submitted by the deadline that meet the guidelines. No image is required to enter, and we only limit audiences and environmental sustainability. Can you tell us how you will address those concerns?

We discontinued using individual water bottles in 2019 at our opening reception and use recyclable serving products. Small, individually wrapped snack cookies and nuts continue to be our only food item. This is a significant reduction of wasteful packaging compared to previous food presentation which involved plates, utensils and disposable cups. Our administrative materials are stored and reused each year. Our equipment purchases are minimal.

Have you done a similar event or project before? Yes

If yes, 1) what worked well and 2) what would you do differently this time?

This is our 45th Annual Art Show and we are constantly improving on the successes of the year before. We have systems of receiving artwork, selling artwork, and returning artwork which rely on volunteers. Our most recent improvement is to accept credit cards using Square, which has simplified and increased sales. Buyers will verify their contact information to simplify tasks for volunteers at the sales desk. Last year’s Members’ Bin Sales table was very popular and successful in sales, due to our increase of the number of pieces submitted per artist. New this year, we will add a table in the front lobby for members to place cards for their personal artwork business as an additional benefit and promotion.
