Candidate Statement (250 word limit)

I am a Bay Area native with a 30 year track record of community engagement, progressive policy-making, and climate solutions leadership. After being a lifetime renter, I bought my first home here in El Cerrito in 2020. I am excited to help our beautiful city achieve its tremendous potential.

My experience includes community outreach for BART; running a successful small business; producing PBS documentaries about racial justice, political history, and climate change; leading California's fossil fuels divestment movement; building effective partnerships to support climate-positive finance and investing; and drafting statewide policy for EV charging equity.

If elected, I will immediately pursue recommendations from the State Auditor for more fiscal responsibility (see: https://www.el-cerrito.org/1565/State-Auditors-Report). I will work for greater government transparency, community engagement, and the return of vital city services. I support more truly affordable housing, electric transportation and micro-mobility, safer streets for walking and biking, and economic development that embraces small local businesses and keeps dollars in our community. I will work regionally to establish a green/blue new deal to create local jobs, build resilience, and increase our tax base.

I have signed the nofossilfuelmoney.org pledge, and I will not take contributions from corporate interests. I will listen to you, the people of El Cerrito. My door will always be open.

I am endorsed by Rochelle Pardue Okimoto, Ted Lam, Sherry Drobner, William Ktsanes, Pennie Opal Plant; City Councilmembers Kate Harrison (Berkeley), Gayle McLaughlin (Richmond), Wei Tai Kwok (Lafayette); 350 Bay Area Action. Visit vanessaforelcerrito.com to learn more.

Pursuant to Elections Code section 20440, subscribing to the Code is voluntary.

There are basic principles of decency, honesty, and fair play which every candidate for public office in the State of California has a moral obligation to observe and uphold in order that, after vigorously contested but fairly conducted campaigns, our citizens may exercise their constitutional right to a free and untrammeled choice and the will of the people may be fully and clearly expressed on the issues.

THEREFORE:

(1) I SHALL CONDUCT my campaign openly and publicly, discussing the issues as I see them, presenting my record and policies with sincerity and frankness, and criticizing without fear or favor the record and policies of my opponents or political parties that merit this criticism.

(2) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT the use of character defamation, whispering campaigns, libel, slander, or scurrilous attacks on any candidate or his or her personal or family life.

(3) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any appeal to negative prejudice based on a candidate’s actual or perceived race, religious creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical disability, mental disability, medical condition, marital status, age, sexual orientation, sex, including gender identity, or any other characteristic set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code, or association with another person who has any of the actual or perceived characteristics set forth in Section 12940 of the Government Code.

(4) I SHALL NOT USE OR PERMIT any dishonest or unethical practice that tends to corrupt or undermine our American system of free elections, or that hampers or prevents the full and free expression of the will of the voters including acts intended to hinder or prevent any eligible person from registering to vote, enrolling to vote, or voting.

(5) I SHALL NOT coerc[e] election help or campaign contributions for myself or for any other candidate from my employees.

(6) I SHALL IMMEDIATELY AND PUBLICLY REPUDIATE support deriving from any individual or group that resorts, on behalf of my candidacy or in opposition to that of my opponent, to the methods and tactics that I condemn. I shall accept responsibility to take firm action against any subordinate who violates any provision of this code or the laws governing elections.

(7) I SHALL DEFEND AND UPHOLD the right of every qualified American voter to full and equal participation in the electoral process.

I, the undersigned, candidate for election to public office in the State of California or treasurer or chairperson of a committee making any independent expenditures, hereby voluntarily endorse, subscribe to, and solemnly pledge myself to conduct my campaign in accordance with the above principles and practices.
